PROJECT

Portfolio Website (On Going) 🔗 ‹/›
2023 - Now | React.js, Next.js, Tailwindcss

A unique portfolio website with a programming syntax style and a layout similar to version control like branches in GIT, with paragraphs grouped using naming conventions similar to React.js components, yet still easily readable by the general public.

Padang Pariaman Rainfall Projection ‹/›
2022 | Django, Tensorflow, Tailwindcss, Vue.js, SCSS, MySQL

A Thesis research website that helps simplify the tuning process of deep learning models using the Long Short-Term Memory method by allowing flexible setting of hyperparameters. With real-time monitoring of the learning process and storing the learning model in a database, enabling researchers to compare different models and accelerate their research.
